DOWNTOWN CULTURAL SERIES

Lloyd D. George U.S. Courthouse
333 Las Vegas Boulevard South

Joe Lano Jazz Band Friday, July 16, 12-1 pm

Internationally acclaimed guitarist, arranger and orchestrator Joe Lano has performed with many of the great musical entertainers, including Buddy Greco, Lena Horne, Carl Fontana and Mel Torme. Today, he performs in showrooms and hotels with his group, the Jazz ORGANization; arranges and produces projects for recording and live performance; and occasionally goes out on tour with headliners. Bring a sack lunch or partake of the light refreshments available.

AERIAL GALLERY Downtown Banner Project

Las Vegas Boulevard, from Charleston Boulevard to City Hall
Look skyward to view the unique drive-through art gallery – a mile-long display of 50 colorful banners that is changed each year in May.

This year, nine individual artists, Dayo Adelaja, Dottie Burton, Jorge Catoni, Stewart Freshwater, Haya Gil-Lubin, Suzanne Hackett-Morgan, Jack Hallberg, Jerry Misko, and Marty Walsh, and a collaborative mural group, 5ive Finger Mismatch, exhibit suites of original works that address issues related to the “urban language of the boulevard.”

FIRST FRIDAYS ART BUS First Friday of each month, 6-10 pm

Use our free bus service to travel to the Arts District’s First Friday events. Visit gallery openings, go antiquing, view unique printing techniques on 130-year-old printing presses at the S-2 building, or stop for a meal or drink at a restaurant or lounge. Bus stops on the 30-minute route include the Arts Factory, Funkhouse, Red Rooster and Ice House.

STUDIO STRAIGHT AHEAD JAZZ SERIES

Our dynamic series offers straight ahead jazz in an intimate concert setting.

Saturdays, 7 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

July 10

Wayne de Silva Trio

Rising star would be a fitting description of de Silva, or as Down Beat would classify him, a "talent deserving wider recognition." Superior jazz musicians ply their art throughout the country, often in near total obscurity. De Silva's low profile is certainly not the result of the company he keeps, which includes some of the best jazz artists around: Wallace Roney, Marlana Shaw, Donald Byrd, Bill Watrous, Pharoah Sanders, Walter Norris, John Handy, Donald Bailey and Herb Geller. He was a member of the Brian Melvin European Tour and has toured Japan with the Okai Band and Teru Nakamura and the Rising Sun Band. His first solo recording, Wayne de Silva, is a masterpiece of jazz tenor playing and superb original compositions. During this concert, de Silva performs a tribute to jazz legend Sonny Rollins.

Bob Winett Quartet

After hearing James Moody play the flute at Los Angeles' famed Lighthouse, Bob Winett says he found his life's purpose - to become a jazz flute player. Since then, he has performed throughout the country and around the world.

PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS CAMP FOR KIDS 2004

Final Musical Production

Children's Matinee - Special Performance

Thursday, July 29, 1 pm

Saturday, July 31, 2 pm

West Las Vegas Library Theatre
951 West Lake Mead Boulevard

The Performing and Visual Arts Camp for Kids provides an essential opportunity for local youth to acquire character-building life skills training through an eight-week arts educative program. Share in our youth's successes displayed through their study of theatre arts, dance, music, film and video production, and the visual arts in the final summer musical production.

Cosponsored by the West
Las Vegas Pioneers

Call 229-4800.

TICKETS: $10

TRIBUTE TO SOUL

Saturday, August 21, 5:30 pm

West Las Vegas Arts Center Amphitheatre

Produced and directed by Ms. China, Po Jazz Productions, Inc.

Bring your picnic baskets, lawn chairs, and dancing shoes - it's a "Tribute to Soul," a special dedication to our musical forefathers and mothers.

GOSPELROCK

Saturday, August 28, 5 pm

West Las Vegas Arts Center Amphitheatre

Jammy Boy Records features national recording artist RSVP and Las Vegas' very own premiere gospel artists. Come share in the musical artistry in an enlightened communal atmosphere.

The Banana Slug String Band

Wednesday, July 7, 2 pm

Charleston Heights Arts Center

Friday, July 9, 2 & 7 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

Science, song and celebration! These lovable musicians and educators from the redwoods of northern California play rockin' boogies, sensitive ballads, folk songs, reggae and rap as they combine music, theatre, puppetry and audience participation to create a fun-filled learning experience.

Jim Moore and the Animal Band

Wednesday, July 14, 2 pm

Charleston Heights Arts Center

Friday, July 16, 2 & 7 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

The Animal Band is back for another fabulous encore performance! One of the most successful acts in family entertainment, the Animal Band has performed at literally hundreds of venues around North America and has been featured in scores of local and national television programs and commercials. Music, laughter and excited audience participation are the hallmarks of every performance. Don't miss the fun!

Tears of Joy Theatre*Coyote Tales

Wednesday, July 21, 2 pm

Charleston Heights Arts Center

Friday, July 23, 2 & 7 pm

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

Tears of Joy is known for its beautifully designed puppets, rich costumes and original music. With a variety of puppets and masks, Coyote Tales tells Native American stories that Lewis and Clark might have heard on their expedition. Learn the nature of the coyote's character in "How the Coyote Kept His Name" and discover how he deals with being trapped in "Coyote and the Cedar Tree."

SUMMER YOUTH MOVIE SERIES

Thursdays, 2-4 pm

East Las Vegas Community/Senior Center

July 1 Aladdin

An ambitious street urchin named Aladdin, voiced by Robin Williams, and his genie take the sultan's daughter on a magic carpet ride. G, 90 min.

July 8 A Bug's Life

Greedy grasshoppers demand a great portion of the ants' harvest each summer and make their lives miserable on Ant Island. Misfit ant Flik invites a group of bugs from a flea circus to help confront the grasshoppers and save their colony. G, 1 hr. 26 min.

July 15 Lilo and Stitch

A lonely little girl makes an unusual friend – a ukulele-playing alien who likes to toss around small automobiles – in this antic animated comedy. PG, 1 hr. 25 min.

July 22 Scooby Doo

This tongue-in-cheek, live-action resurrection of the old Saturday-morning cartoon finds the gang reunited to investigate the zombie teens of a haunted amusement park. PG, 1 hr. 27 min.

July 29 The Lion King

A lion cub is forced to flee into the jungle following his father's death and his evil uncle's usurpation of his throne. G, 1 hr. 27 min.

August 5 Harry Potter and Sorcerer's Stone

J.K. Rowling's first fantasy novel took the world by storm. The film adaptation faithfully captures the book's essence and magical world of wizards. PG, 2 hr. 32 min.

August 12 Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets

Harry's education and fantastic adventures continue in this sequel. PG, 2 hr. 41 min.

August 19 Atlantis, The Lost Empire

This Disney movie will take you on an adventure to find the famed lost city. PG, 1 hr. 28 min.

FAMILY FILM SERIES

Bring the family and a picnic and watch some of Disney's most popular animated films.

Thursdays, 8 pm

Jaycee Park
(Eastern Avenue & St. Louis)

July 8 Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

Snow White set the standard for animated full-length feature films with its release in 1937. With carefully crafted backgrounds, fully realized characters and a delightful musical score, Snow White is the perfect fairy tale. G, 1 hr. 23 min.

July 15 Dumbo

The big-eared, plucky little elephant is born into an intolerant world that can't accept abnormality. As with many of Disney's films, animals are imbued with human emotions to convey meaningful messages as well as an entertaining story. G, 1 hr. 4 min.

July 22 Peter Pan

As soon as the Darling children discover Peter Pan searching for his shadow, their adventures begin. Pirates, Indians, lost boys, Neverland – one exciting event follows another until Wendy, John and Michael decide that, unlike Peter, they want to grow up. G, 1 hr. 16 min.

July 29 Fantasia

Melding classical music with inspired animation, this innovative film has become an enduring classic. From The Sorcerer's Apprentice featuring Mickey Mouse as an aspiring magician to the frolicking ostriches, hippos, elephants and alligators dancing to Dance of the Hours, Fantasia is a visual wonder. G, 2 hr.

THE COLOR OF HAY: ANCIENT PEASANT WAYS IN TRANSYLVANIA

Kathleen Laraia McLaughlin
through July 11

Charleston Heights Arts Center

Kathleen Laraia McLaughlin traveled to Romania to photograph the old peasant ways of Transylvania. She and her husband lived for a year as peasants – relying on a wood-burning stove, bathing without running water and sharing one roof with three generations. McLaughlin spent a second year in the Transylvanian city of Cluj-Napoca as a Fulbright Senior Scholar.

VIVA DOWNTOWN: CELEBRATING THE ART OF THE AERIAL GALLERY

through July 30

Bridge Gallery
City Hall, 2nd Floor
4th Street and Stewart Avenue

Viewers get a close-up look at the original artwork by local artists Dayo Adelaja, Dottie Burton, Jorge Catino, Stewart Freshwater, Haya Gil-Lubin, Jerry Misko, Marty Walsh, and artists from Five Finger Miscount, whose banners are on display along Las Vegas Boulevard, from Charleston to City Hall.

URBAN FUSIONS

Susan Bowen
through August 15

Reed Whipple Cultural Center

Inspired by the energy and complexity of the urban environment, photographer Bowen explores the themes of time, chance, convergence and vitality. Using a $20 plastic camera called a Holga, she creates the images by partially advancing the film between exposures. She is intrigued by how the unplanned juxtapositions capture so richly the essence of a particular moment and place.

Reflections to Go

TRANSFORMING IMAGES OF NATURE

Roxene Rockwell
July 16-September 12

Charleston Heights Arts Center

California artist Roxene Rockwell cuts, pastes and transforms images from magazines, catalogs, colored paper and her own photographs into highly manipulated, surreal-based collages. She uses her introspective works to “create stories or places full of wonderment, serenity, fantasy, mystery or humor.”

VIVA DOWNTOWN: CELEBRATING THE ART OF THE AERIAL GALLERY

August 6-October 8

Bridge Gallery
City Hall, 2nd Floor
4th Street and Stewart Avenue

Viewers get a close-up look at the original artwork by local artists Harold Bradford, Ginger Bruner, Mark Burns, Diane Bush, Merrilee Hottt, Bobbie Ann Howell, Jim Pink, Pasha Rafat and Mary Warner, whose banners have been displayed in the Aerial Gallery, on Las Vegas Boulevard from Charleston to City Hall.

COMMUNITY ROOTS GALLERY

Performing and Visual Arts Camp for Kids 2004

AFRICAN AMERICAN FATHERS: FACTORS THAT MOTIVATE THEIR COMMITMENT TO THEIR CHILDREN

A community discussion and dialogue workshop

Saturday, July 24, 3 pm

West Las Vegas Arts Center

John Carter, Ph.D., author of "African American Fathers: Factors That Motivate Their Commitment to Their Children," presents an overview of his study that examined the roles African-American men play in the family. His findings refute some of the stereotypical beliefs that portray all African-American men as poor, non-supportive fathers. He will also provide recommendations on ways to increase the number of African-American fathers who support and nurture their children as integral parts of the child-raising process. An open dialogue and community discussion follows.

SUNSHINE PATRIOTS, "A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE YOU WILL NEVER FORGET"

Meet Bill Campbell, novelist, up close and personal...

Wednesday, July 28, 7 pm

West Las Vegas Arts Center

"After leaving Northwestern University and spending a brief stint in Miami, I found myself again, somewhat aimless, in my hometown of Pittsburgh. It was 1991- and George H.W. Bush's Persian Gulf War was upon us. Being young and idealistic as I was, the war (all 100 hours of it) depressed me, dispirited me. But what really got to me was the hero's welcome that met the returning Gulf War soldiers. I thought of my uncle... He was a Marine who spent two tours of duty in Vietnam, and all he got were two Purple Hearts. No one considered him a hero. Yet, the Gulf War vets were."
